The Hotel

Nestling in the tranquility of acres of rolling gardens and wooded parkland the Menzies Flitwick Manor is a true country house hotel.

Located near the historic village of Woburn, only 2 miles from junction 12 of the M1 and five minutes from Flitwick railway station, this classical 17th century house offers a delightful setting for your meetings and events.

The hotel has 18 individually furnished bedrooms, an award winning a la carte restaurant and three charming function suites, the Morning Room, the Library and the Brooks Room, ideal for elegant, private functions or executive meetings. The hotel also offers free internet access in all public areas.

In addition to the helicopter landing pad there is a croquet lawn and tennis court.
